Guests of Honor of Governor of British

Stockholm, Aug. 3 .- A labor war the large steamers engaged in the Stockholm, Aug. 3.—A labor war throughout Sweden that is scheduled to begin tomorrow threatens to develop in Stockholm into something approaching a miniature revolution. The trouble will be enormously aggravated by the general strike and lockout. The members of the young socialist party are striving to give the movement a revolutionary character, and the government, warned that a political campaign is going on at the same time, has taken steps to mip the expected disorder in the bud. The authorities have decided, at the first signs of instance of the seaside resorts in the summer in carrying visitors and residents to the seaside resorts in the archipelago have suddenly stopped running, discharged their crews and are being laid up for the winter. This summer traffic is usually continued until the month of October.

Sale of Intoxicants Forbidden,

It is expected that the present total of about 100,000 idle workmen will be largely increased by tomorrow. It is anticipated also that the cab and street car services in Stockholm will stop running Wednesday and arrangerevolutionary character, and the government, warned that a political campaign is going on at the same time, has taken steps to nip the expected disorder in the bud. The authorities have decided, at the first signs of insurrection, to declare Stockholm in a state of siege.

Thaw was excused after a bit more of this ordeal and Dr. Austin Flint was called.

Dr. Flint described a paranolac as Dr. Flint described a paranolac as a person dominated by certain delusions, whose mental and physical state might not otherwise be affected except in so far as these delusions influence him. The progress of the disease was usually very slow, he said. It rarely caused death and except in the last stages the patient might retain his faculties unimpaired.

The alienists today delivered their opinion of Thaw in answer to Jerome's hypothetical question, only a small part of which was read. It dealt mainly with Thaw's family history and his early life.

"Do you mean to sit there and tell us, who observed you in both homicide trials, that you did not believe you knew more about the case than your lawyers did?"

"I do," was Thaw's quick reply.

"You were nice and docile all the time?"

The state's alienists will probably occupy the center of the stage for two days more. Mr. Morschauser will continue tamoreow his cross examination of either Dr. Flint or Dr. Hirsch, both of which were left unfinished. Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald has yet to teating?"
